Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz employees support food drive

FORT MYERS, Fla. (Oct. 18, 2010) – Each year, students at Heights Elementary School in Fort Myers join together to support The Salvation Army’s annual canned food drive, which helps feed the less fortunate in Lee County throughout the coming year.

This year, the employees at Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A. gave the school’s food drive a boost by filling the law firm’s Fort Myers kitchen area with canned goods and boxed items that were delivered to Heights Elementary to support the students’ efforts.

Two employees of the firm have family ties to Heights: attorney Zack Gill’s wife is a kindergarten teacher, and legal assistant Ellen Stone has a sister who teaches first grade for the school.

Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., was established in 1962 and provides a full complement of legal services to clients in its Fort Myers, Cape Coral, Naples, Lehigh Acres and Port Charlotte offices. Areas of practice include personal injury and accidents, wrongful death, wills and estates, real estate, bankruptcy, insurance, commercial, criminal, family, immigration and construction law.
