Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz bake sales raise nearly $700 for Heart Walk

FORT MYERS, Fla. (Dec. 12, 2011) – The results of two recent bake sales benefiting the American Heart Association were definitely sweet: With help from partners and employees at the Southwest Florida law firm Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, the bake sales netted nearly $700.

All funds collected directly benefited the American Heart Association through the Goldstein, Buckley team that participated in the 2011 Lee County Heart Walk on Dec. 10. For the second year, the team was led by personal injury attorney Christopher J. Smith, who announced the team's grand total of $1,400 for the Heart Walk.

"Everyone at this law firm truly enjoys participating in worthy community causes like the Heart Walk," said Smith. "The proceeds from the bake sale helped us meet our team's fundraising goal and supported the important work of the American Heart Association."

After the bake sales were complete, the remaining homemade treats – which filled eight shopping bags – were donated to Community Cooperative Ministries Inc.

Donations to the Lee County Heart Walk are still being accepted. For more information, call 239-495-4910.
