Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz attorney also serves on board of directors

FORT MYERS, Fla. (June 1, 2011) – Zachary M. Gill, an attorney with the Southwest Florida law firm Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., was elected to the executive committee for the Edison Festival of Light Inc. by the festival’s board of directors.

Gill, who has served on the board of directors since 2008, now holds a one-year term in the officer position of At Large Director.

The Edison Festival of Light honors Thomas Alva Edison’s achievements and seeks to improve the local community by providing education and activities related to Edison’s work. The festival runs various community events during January and February, including the Edison Festival of Light Grand Parade and Junior Parade, Day of Discovery, Mutt Strutt, Crafts on the River, and a 5K race.

Gill, a trial attorney admitted to the Florida Bar in 2005, is a graduate of Florida State University and Barry University School of Law. He has previously worked with the State Attorney’s offices in Orange, Osceola and Lee counties. Gill is a member of the Calusa Inn of Court, Lee County Bar Association, Florida Justice Association and the Southwest Florida Seminole Club. His current practice emphasizes personal injury, wrongful death, insurance claims litigation and criminal law.

Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., was established in 1962 and provides a full complement of legal services to clients in its Fort Myers, Cape Coral, Naples, Lehigh Acres and Port Charlotte offices. Areas of practice include personal injury and accidents, wrongful death, wills and estates, real estate, insurance, guardianships and construction law.
