Attorney Richard L. Purtz featured speaker at Lee County Alliance of Legal Professionals

FORT MYERS, Fla. (Nov. 15, 2011) – Richard L. Purtz, partner in the Southwest Florida law firm Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., recently gave a presentation to the Lee County Alliance of Legal Professionals, which offers legal resources and educational information to its members.

Mr. Purtz, a board-certified Civil Trial attorney, provided an update on legislative changes to Florida's auto insurance statutes, worker's compensation laws, homeowner's insurance, and laws concerning an insurance company's breach of the duty of good faith toward its insured.

As part of the organization's continuing education program, attendees at the presentation received CLE credit.

Mr. Purtz is a member of the Florida Justice Association and is licensed to practice in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Purtz helped organize and served as the first president of the Southwest Florida Trial Lawyers Association, is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates and has been recognized as one of Florida's Super Lawyers. In his law practice, Purtz emphasizes personal injury, wrongful death and insurance claims litigation.

Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., was established in 1962 and provides a full complement of legal services to clients in its Fort Myers, Cape Coral, Naples, Lehigh Acres and Port Charlotte offices. Areas of practice include personal injury and accidents, wrongful death, wills and estates, real estate, insurance, guardianships and construction law.
