J. Jeffrey Rice presents to local credit management association

FORT MYERS, Fla. (Aug. 9, 2011) – J. Jeffrey Rice, managing partner for the Southwest Florida law firm Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., recently presented “Misunderstood Issues in the Construction Lien Law and Contracts” to the local chapter of the National Association of Credit Management.

Rice is certified as a civil trial advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy and is licensed to practice in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida and admitted to practice in the U.S. 11th Circuit Court of Appeals. Rice is on the Grievance Committee for the Fort Myers Division of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida. Rice emphasizes his practice on commercial law, construction law, construction lien cases and real estate closings for clients.

Of the 90,000 members of The Florida Bar, Rice is one of only 12 certified in three areas of law and one of only four attorneys in the state who are certified in Civil Trial, Business Litigation and Construction Law. He has been recognized as a Florida Super Lawyer for six consecutive years.

Goldstein, Buckley, Cechman, Rice & Purtz, P.A., was established in 1962 and provides a full complement of legal services to clients in its Fort Myers, Cape Coral, Naples, Lehigh Acres and Port Charlotte offices. Areas of practice include personal injury and accidents, wrongful death, wills and estates, real estate, insurance, guardianships and construction law.
